On this week's episode, I welcome Melissa Burch, Executive General Manager of New York Development at Lend Lease Americas. Tune in as Melissa shares with us her childhood growing up in Columbus, OH and how that helped guide her to become interested in real estate and helped shape her career today. Melissa also shares with us her early experiences in the business and working closely with the legend Bruce Ratner at Forest City Ratner Companies.

Melissa Burch

Melissa Burch is the Executive General Manager, New York, for the Americas Development business. In her role with Lend Lease, Melissa leads and grows the development business in the New York market, pursues and identifies development opportunities and large-scale urban regeneration projects throughout the greater metropolitan area, as well as supports development efforts nationally. Prior to joining Lend Lease, Ms. Burch served as Executive Vice President for Forest City Ratner Companies where she had overall responsibility for commercial and residential development. In this role, she oversaw the development of the Atlantic Yards project, a public/private partnership development extending 2
