December 3rd 2020: Losing Your Virginity with Robin LaCross

When a teenage girl decides to have sex, it's only a matter of time before she actually has sex. The desire to have sex is a normal and natural part of growing up. Our job as adults is to make sure she has good information so that she can make wise decisions about her health and safely satisfy her curiosity about sex. It's also our responsibility to make sure she has access to condoms and contraception so that she can explore sex safely. This episode is dedicated to all the girls who are thinking about having sex for the first time. You'll find questions to ask both yourself and your partner t
