January 4th 2021: Finding the Spirit in Psychology

Have you ever spent time with a psychologist and wondered whether this was doing you any good? Or tried to share a mystical experience and gotten slapped with a diagnosis for your efforts? Then, you'll want to join Zofia and Victoria as they explore how psychology CAN open the doors into the mystical. How your psychology can allow you to step fully into your connection to spirit and maintain compassion for your humanity and human experience .

Featured Guest

Victoria Shaw

Victoria Shaw is a Licensed Professional Counselor and Spiritual Coach who combines her background and training in psychology and counseling with her intuitive gifts to help clients heal, grow and realize their spiritual and full personal potential. She especially loves working with people who are committed to using their struggles and life experiences to fuel their own spiritual awakening. Victoria is the author of four self-help books for parents, children and teens and the mother of two spirited (now adult) children.
