What the Food? Archives Available

January 18th 2021: How do the under served find clean food?

Working in the non-profit sector with the homeless population of Arizona, Haley brings her experience and frustration to the conversation about how finding nutritious food when you're down and out is nearly impossible. Bureaucracy and tied hands don't favor the hungry and homeless.

Featured Guest

Haley Hyatt

Haley moved to the Prescott area from Washington DC in 2004 after completing 2 years of service in Eastern Europe for the United States Peace Corps. That experience led to a decade of work in the non-profit sector focused on social issues related to poverty and homelessness. Haley's work with vulnerable populations is at the heart of her ongoing inquiry into the relationship between nutrition and mental wellness. Haley holds a Masters of Science in Leadership Studies from Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University.
