Good Morning Canada
Wednesday at 9 AM Pacific January 27th 2021: The JFK Conspiracy Theory and The Curious Incident of the Dog

In this episode we provide a brief account of the day in 1963, when President Kennedy was assassinated in Dallas. We focus on the Kennedy assassination discovering that doubt is often the root cause of conspiracy theory, based on human biases and enduring a traumatic experience. We explain how conspiracy theories become established due to a concept known as agency panic. We provide a brief account of November 22 starting with the infamous Zapruder film, which is the focus of debate between the official version of events and those of the so-called conspiracy theorists. The various interpreta
