Get Wisdom

Friday at 10 AM Pacific

April 2nd 2021: Creator's Perspective on Intervention Versus Interference

Interacting with others has many rules and pitfalls. How can people develop a knack for doing the right thing more often than not? If an action done while being a good Samaritan ends up causing harm, how is the karmic responsibility sorted out? How can parents and teachers strike the right balance to promote growth and learning but avoid being overprotective? What are the complications and mitigating factors when one causes the death of another? Is there something sinister behind the current complications in simply asking someone on a date? Creator explains why human psychology is still large!
