

Dropping In

Friday at 8 AM Pacific

May 21st 2021: Waiting for the Night Song: Julie Carrick Dalton's Suspense Novel

We'll Drop In with Julie Carrick Dalton about her debut novel about secrets -- both the earth's secrets and personal -- values and friendship. When Cadie and her friend Daniela witness a murder as children, they're forced to keep it a secret. But when the incident resurfaces decades later after they've drifted apart, time runs short for both as they try to figure out whether the truth is worth the sacrifice. This is an incredibly timely book in the vein of Migrations by Charlotte McConaghy and Flight Behavior by Barbara Kingsolver that has a parallel narrative about the bark beetle infestation.
