

Empowering Women, Transforming Lives
Thursday at 10 AM Pacific
June 3rd 2021: Be Inspired to Step Into Your Calling and SHINE!

Do you ever wonder how you can fully step into your calling... to fully embody and become all of who you are by shining in the way you are gifted and made to shine? Today's guests are experts at recognizing and championing that star power in others. Rebecca will walk with Cathy Davis and Abram Siegel-Rivers. Cathy will share about her book, which is a tribute to one of this generation's greatest stars: Ruth Bader Ginsburg. There is much to inspire us as we reflect on her life! Abram will share his passion for helping others discover their gifts and use those gifts to shine their light on others.

Featured Guests

Cathy Davis

Cathy Davis is Founder/CEO of Davis Creative Publishing Partners. After a corporate career as a Creative Director at Bank of America Trust, Cathy struck out on her own in January of 2004. Offering Branding and Design Services, Cathy pivoted the company in support of authors around 2007. Their Publishing Partners division now helps speakers, trainers, and consultants use the power of publishing as a marketing tool to grow their businesses. Cathy's husband, Jack, joined the company in 2008 after almost 20 years at a global Public Relations firm. Together, they now use their decades of experience as visual and verbal communicators to help their clients reap the benefits of publishing for both p

Abram Siegel-Rivers

Abram grew up in a multicultural home in the San Francisco Bay area. A professional musician, he toured across the US and Europe for over 13 years. After years of touring and recording, he journeyed through an existential inquiry, asking himself, "Who am I?", "Why am I?", and "Why bother?". It was at the end of 2019 when he discovered his calling, and the One Day vision and nonprofit was born. One Day is based in Nashville, TN and after launching in early 2020 it has opened up offices in Saskatchewan, Canada and Chennai, India. Abram is committed to empowering individuals and connecting, inspiring, and amplifying communities through music, art, culture, and events. His commitment to peace, tr
