Friday at 11 AM Pacific
June 11th 2021: Compassionate Leadership with Paul Axtell

Inspiring and engaging your team, ultimately delivering great results, begins with having the people on your team believe you care about them as whole human beings. At our current pace, too many leaders say they have lost the time to have a meaningful conversation. How do we get compassion and caring back into the day-day fabric of our leadership without losing track of everything else? Tune in for simple ways to make a difference with your team.
