As we live longer and healthier lives, this question has become our biggest worry: How do we make sure we don't outlive our retirement savings? Of course, it's important to live our current life to the fullest—as we've learned from the sudden losses inflicted by the pandemic. But it's also important to put together our best plan to meet the challenges, known and unknown, we'll probably face in the later chapters of life. In today's episode, Ronald Rogé, a widely recognized wealth manager and Certified Financial Planner, talks about how to create such a plan, starting with the key questions we
