September 1st 2021: Senior? . . . The Most Important Decision Of Your Life

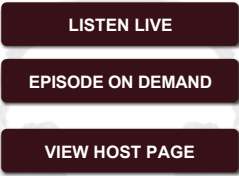

I was born on May 20th, 1952 in Washington, DC. I was raised in Arlington, VA and my Father, was USDA for over 33 years, serving many national interests in his career as a public servant. Now at age 69, I am a Senior. I don't apologize for that distinction and here is the reason WHY. Seniors now make up 16% of the total population of the USA to the tune of 47 million. We are a FORCE, both numerically and economically. But stay tuned. In the year 2060, the number of Seniors in America will DOUBLE. America is AGING right now, over 100 million will be over the age 65. Seniors are a HUGE
