November 2nd 2021: TOO SEXUALLY EXPLICIT FOR TV, BUT ALLOWED IN SCHOOLS!?!

Not just Virginia's problem-coming to a school near you, too! Would you believe that an ad - banned by network television stations in Virginia - because it is unlawful to show such sexually explicit materials - is the current reading material provided to Virginia's students? Several local TV stations refused to air Independent Women's Voice's ad: "Worth 1,000 Words", depicting sexually explicit materials available in VA public schools. Federal communications law prohibits televisions from showing adults such materials, even when the same materials have been available to kids in Virginia publ
