Questions! Questions! Questions! The questions never end when it comes to personal and business income taxes. As the 2022 tax season approaches, we have accumulated even more common questions individuals and businesses ask. When does an income tax return have to be filed? Are the stimulus checks income? Are the Advance Child Tax Credit payments taxable income? So many questions individual taxpayers are asking. Business and self-employed taxpayers are asking even more questions such as: What are business meals? What is self-employment tax? Should the business take bonus depreciation or
