As we get older and become empty nesters, one question naturally arises: "Should we downsize to a smaller house?" It's clear we don't need all that space—or the continued expense and time it takes to maintain a large family home. But...we still love the idea of living in our own home. Where can we go? Better call Sheri. In today's episode, we call on Sheri Koones, an award-winning author and recognized national authority on home construction, who explains the mass shift from expensive suburban and urban living to smaller, more affordable homes. Sheri, the author of 10 books over 20 years, has
