May 19th 2022: A Mother's Love

In honor of Mother's Day, Dr. Connie shares the theme of a mother's love. Mothers make many sacrifices for their children and would even give up their lives for them. To lose one's mother in childhood can have devastating effects on children. Renowned American sculptor, Gary Lee Price, shares the tragic story of losing his mother early in life in his new memoir, Divine Turbulence. Tune in to hear how amid tragedy and terror, choices can shape our destiny.

Featured Guest

Gary Lee Price and Leesa Clark-Price

Gary Lee Price and Leesa Clark-Price have dedicated their lives to the vision and completion of the Statue of Responsibility. Together, and separately, they are committed to uniting all of humanity. They have a firm belief that if you can accomplish your dream within your lifetime, your dream is not big enough. Gary has a deep-seated affection for world peace. At the tender age of 6, he endured what many of us could not. As a little boy, he witnessed the unexpected and tragic loss of his parents and then became a victim of child abuse. Gary took that clay and molded his adversities into unbridled passion. A passion for positivity was born. Art chose Gary. Gary chose humanity. And to this da
