Douglas McGann

Douglas McGann is the Managing Partner at Camber Advisors, a boutique management consulting/advisory firm located in New York and Connecticut. His diverse career has been built over 30 years in driving financial and operational performance at PE backed FinTech, multinational banking, consultancy, and private start-up organizations in varying stages of growth. His domestic and international experience includes senior-level leadership across all functions, P&L responsibility, and direct accountability to the board of directors. In his most recent role as President and CFO of Unirush he architected and drove the 3-year transformation of a $100MM privately owned prepaid debit card company into
