

The Kinetic Enterprise(tm): Built to Evolve, Presented by Deloitte Friday at 6 AM Pacific /9 AM Eastern June 24th 2022: Sparking An Evolution in Commodity Trading & Risk Management

When it comes to commodity trading, making the "right" decisions can seem a lot tougher these days—given ongoing supply chain disruptions, energy prices, cost pressures, sustainability goals, and other factors. Add disparate data sources and legacy IT to the mix, and the challenges grow. Increasingly, leaders realize they need to integrate and standardize the systems that support commodity trading—to get closer to a single version of the truth. Such a move can be a business differentiator, allowing you to visualize a more unified landscape, identify opportunities for value, manage risks, a
