January 30th 2008: A Transformational Approach to Getting Out of Debt

In this day and age, living with personal debt is a common occurrence for many people. According to one news source many Americans now carry five to 10 credit cards and have credit-card debt totaling $5,000 or more. In this episode Ariel and Shya Kane welcome special guests, Paula, Vice President of Marketing & Communications at a California hospital and Lenore, actress, sign language interpreter and entrepreneur. Both Paula and Lenore were at one time deeply in debt and have discovered the keys to turn this lifestyle around. Join the Kanes and guests as they discuss a Transformational approach
