One of the most grave illnesses today is the 'disease of disconnect', the unspoken way that many walk through life never feeling connected. So many feel different than everyone else and close off rather than seeing those others as exactly the same: wanting to share and love, feeling some pain or abandonment, and seeking of community. It is easy to walk away from relationships that do not work. Often when a relationship is there for a while, experiences will trigger, upset, or frustration. Discover how everything is a mirror, particularly relationships with others. In viewing relationships, we ac
