A listener's email prompted one of the topics for this week's show. It told how knowing your rights if you're a crime victim saved one man more than $100,000 in medical bills. Since April 10-16 is Crime Victims Rights Week, Crime Prevention Specialist Susan Bartelstone speaks with Forensic Nurse Bridget Maybury about how she helped her brother navigate the Victim Compensation Program--and listen good, because all 50 states have them. Then, she talks with Tina Stanford, Director of the NYS Office of Victim Services about what your rights are if you're a crime victim. She'll also be chattin
