December 17th 2011: Doctor, Doctor, Give me the News! How do I Choose??

Choosing a doctor for a cosmetic procedure can be difficult. There are many types of doctors in many specialties offering similar services. Now think about adding all the non-doctors to your list of possible choices. New Reflections is always concerned with giving you the best, most reliable and honest information to help you make good choices. This week we will talk about some choices gone bad. From butt injections with cement and fix-a-flat to breast surgery being done by a dentist – how do you avoid making the same mistakes? Join us this week to learn some great tips in choosing your doctor
