Happy Holidays! On this week's show I will share some of my favorite holiday themes and passages and will have a few free gifts to share with my audience. I will also share a special message from my guides. My guest is writer and author Alexi Paulina. Alexi did not start out her career as a writer. Her college degree is a BS degree in Information Systems Management, which, is about business processes. The positions she has held in her career have often included technical, analytical as well as creative writing. One position led to the next and soon she evolved to her own editing business
