In the fallen angels' bag of tricks, one of the oldest and still, unfortunately, most effective plays is 'Divide and Conquer'. We see it used time and time again socially, culturally and politically. When we stand together, our collective power is undeniable. But when we are divided and segregated, our power is diluted...often to the point of being ineffective. Don't fall for it! In God, we are all united. We are ONE. And we must remain ever vigilant against efforts by anyone, whether in church or state, to convince us that any division within us as a group, community or nation is real. N
