September 6th 2012: Winning Ponies Welcomes Retired Jockey Julie Krone and Handicapper David Litfin

Julie Krone followed in her mom's footsteps and had a huge successful career as a jockey. She had retired from race riding, got married and is now raising a family with her husband Jay Hovdey, an executive columnist for the Daily Racing Form (who also was a guest on the show.) They have a daughter Lorelei Judith. (Hovdey also has a son, Ed, from his previous marriage.) When she is not caring for her family, Julie has been occupied as a racing broadcaster, a motivational speaker, and an instructor in the discipline of natural horsemanship. She will tell us about the highs and lows of her ri

Julieann Louise "Julie" Krone
This summer of 2020 will look a bit different for tJulie Krone the Hall of Famer ex-jockey but she said she is equally as excited to be making her return into the racing world. Krone has announced that she will become the agent for Ferrin Peterson, a 28-year-old jockey who was making waves last summer at Del Mar and is now preparing for this year's season at Monmouth Park, a track that has a special place in Krone's heart. Julieann Louise "Julie" Krone (born July 24, 1963, Benton Harbor, Michigan), is a retired American jockey. In 1993, she became the first female jockey to win a Triple Crown race when she captured the Belmont Stakes aboard Colonial Affair. In 2000 she became the first woma
