Devaluation of the US Dollar

Sean Hyman, editor of the Ultimate Wealth Report, is convinced that policies by the American government will lead to a depreciation of the dollar against other strong currencies and hard answers such as gold, silver and commodities. In this interview he explains what these policies are, what kind of impact he sees them having on the global economy, and how investors should position themselves to profit from these trends.

Featured Guest

Sean Hyman

Sean Hyman has an extensive background in the financial markets, having spent more than 20 years in the investing trenches. Over that time, he's been a stockbroker at Charles Schwab, a trading course instructor for foreign exchange market maker Forex Capital Markets (FXCM), a financial writer for numerous outlets, and a key speaker at conferences both nationally and internationally. Over the course of his career Hyman has also held five financial licenses. Through his variety of experience in these positions and trading his own accounts, Hyman has accumulated a wide range of tools to decipher key market trends, and to find opportunities in often-overlooked corners of the market. According to
