The Military culture and organization, by necessity, are built on mission, rules, obedience, honor, courage, and more. The military was one of the first organizations to mandate racial integration. The men and women who serve face extraordinary circumstances that challenge the limits of human beings. Now you want to talk about race too! What are some of the shining accomplishments and new challenges? Are they subtle or glaring beacons pointing the way to stay in front of changes on race? Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) laws have been in place for a long time now. Is obedience and compliance
