Pam Gaylor
Pam Gaylor has over 25 years in technology, marketing and sales, but her passion is supporting the elderly as she is the primary caregiver for her mother. Because of this passion, Pam is working on bringing to market a turnkey solution that provides support for Caregivers and their loved ones. Her company, Connected Care Solutions, is launching patented technology developed by Caregivers for Caregivers to help improve the quality of care, and ultimately the quality of life for the aging. The initial launch will be in the United States in the first quarter of 2013 with projections for a global unveiling within the next 3 years. Pam's past roles include Support Analyst at National Semiconduct

Sherry Friedlander-Olsen
Every 40 seconds a child is reported missing in the U.S. In 1997, Sherry Friedlander-Olsen, established a non-profit corporation, A Child Is Missing (ACIM), to assist law enforcement in the search/early recovery of missing children, the elderly (Alzheimer's), college students and the disabled. Sherry didn't experience the anguish of a missing child, but no one in the country was offering a free service like this to law enforcement and she recognized it was badly needed. So she decided to take this on as a mission to help save the lives of loved ones that could not help themselves. Among many awards, Sherry's participated in The White House Conference on Small Business, The White House Co
