Turning Hard Times into Good Times
Tuesday at 12 Noon Pacific
January 15th 2013: Do the Chickens Come Home to Roost in 2013?

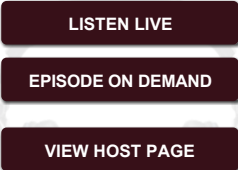

Alasdair MacLeod and Peter Grandich will provide their thoughts and concerns about 2013. Both investment pros believe the western world is heading down a path toward economic destruction as policy makers increasingly interfere with the freedom of markets and individuals. Given this path toward a communist/fascist environment, how can you and I best protect our lives and the welfare of our families given the institutionalization of government theft of our private property? Both MacLeod and Grandich are believers in gold and silver as part of the answer, but are there opportunities in equities a
