Amit Goswami, Ph. D.

Amit Goswami, Ph. D. is a professor of physics (retired) at the University of Oregon, Eugene, OR, where he served since 1968. He is a pioneer of the new paradigm of science called science within consciousness, an idea he explicated in his seminal book, The Self-Aware Universe, where he also solved the quantum measurement problem elucidating the famous observer effect. Amit has written seven other books based on his research on quantum physics and consciousness. In The Visionary Window, he demonstrated how science and spirituality could be integrated. In Physics of the Soul Amit developed a theory of survival after death and reincarnation. His book, The Quantum Doctor integrates conventional
