August 28th 2013: Learning about wine: Building a Wine Library

At least five times a week, I'm ask the same question: How did you learn so much about wine? My usual response is "Drinking." While humorous, it's also true. It's impossible to learn about wine, scotch, or even tea & coffee, if you don't like to drink it, and drink it often. In addition to drinking, most wine/beverage enthusiasts are readers. Some are fans of specific magazines; others are fans of wine blogs. Me? I'm a fan of books. I LOVE them. And that is where I get my continuous flow of information. The wine history, region, producers, grapes, terroir, and the list goes on. The books I ch
