December 2nd 2013: Special Encore
Presentation: The Simple Facts about the Affordable Care Act

We have invited experts from Oswald, one of the nation's largest independent, employee-owned insurance brokerage firms, to give us the skinny on the Affordable Care Act. In 2014, new exchanges and the individual health insurance mandate widened the spectrum of opportunities and risk exposures for employers striving to provide coverage to employees and families. As a result, business owners must proactively plan, rather than respond, to evolving financial and administrative implications of the Affordable Care Act. In simple terms, we will discuss what small business owners need to know today
