April 8th 2014: Congressman Bill Posey speaks on the Need for Openness and Transparency within the CDC on Issues of Vaccine Safety

Guest host and biochemist Dr. Brian Hooker interviews Congressman Bill Posey on the need for openness and transparency within the CDC on issues of vaccine safety. Rep. Bill Posey will discuss the current autism epidemic and issues that families with autistic children face. Also to be discussed, the congressional hearing held in November 2012 regarding the autism epidemic and the CDC's role in vaccines safety, how he became involved in the autism community, why this is such an important issue, and what he feels are steps that need to be taken to begin to recognize these issues.
