April 23rd 2014: Building Confidence in Your Team

Part of a CIO's job is to instill confidence in your team that you've got everyone's back. Demonstrating that you know what's important to your team and to your business can go a long way toward building productivity, connectivity and a willingness to ascend and grow within the organization. But a leader can't make someone confident, only help people find their confidence. What are the principles to investing in your employees? How do you build that platform of risk-taking and opportunity for your team to stand on? Guest 1: Becky Blalock, Former SVP & CIO, Author, Southern Company Guest Bio:
