June 5th 2014: Messages from the Afterlife

Does consciousness continue after the body dies? If so, can we interact with that consciousness? There are those who say they get messages from "the other side" who are called "psychic mediums." If they aren't communicating with that person who has passed, how do they know what they know? Where does that information that no-one else can know come from? Is there any scientific explanation for this phenomenon? Mark Ireland, a successful businessman, will talk about messages he has received from his son who died in his teens and will discuss his work studying the validity of mediumship from a sci

Mark Ireland

Mark Ireland is the son of Richard Ireland, a renowned psychic who counseled celebrities such as Mae West and Glenn Ford and who knew the Eisenhower family. After the passing of his youngest son, Mark wrote Soul Shift: Finding Where the Dead Go, a moving account of his quest for answers about life after death.
