September 19th 2014: Clairvoyant Psychotherapy

While meditation and spiritual searching have long been associated with Eastern religions, they are becoming more mainstream as those who identify as secular or of other religions are increasingly drawn to spiritual practices. In this episode I will be interviewing one such person - Susan Feinbloom, LCSW, who has achieved profound success in her psychotherapy practice by incorporating the spiritual with conventional therapy methods. She shares these groundbreaking techniques in her new book, Clairvoyant Psychotherapy which we will learn more about as well as learning how she weaves meditation
