September 18th 2014: All Tied Up in Japanese Bondage

Shibari - the Art of Japanese Bondage has a long history, and has found its way into the kink and alternative art communities of the West. What is it exactly and what is its appeal to modern Westerners? Why are we discussing it on The Tantric Lounge? Because it is so Tantric in essence - it's about deep connection, sensuality, beauty and poetry. Today we talk to Hebari, head teacher at the Rope Dojo in Sydney's inner suburbs and curator of the Sydney Rope Festival. Listen and look at photos as he ties Jacqueline up during this episode...

Hebari

David (known as Hebari,) has practiced shibari for 16 years, travelling to Japan regularly to study with his mentors. He has performed and taught workshops all over the world. David began the Sydney Rope Dojo in 2011 where people can come and take classes weekly. The focus of the Dojo is to enable people connect with their partners with a heavy focus on teaching safe practices.
