Demetri and his featured guest, production designer Kalina Ivanov, discuss the fascinating world of film and television design. Kalina shares a personal journey from her native Bulgaria to her arrival in New York and her subsequent education at NYU. Tracing her beginnings as a storyboard artist to how she became one of the most talented and recognized production designers in film today, Kalina reveals her inspiration and creative process, how she transforms reality into story-telling, movie magic scenery and manifests the visual environments that characterize her award-winning set designs. Fin
