November 13th 2014: Bamboozled Uneven Playing Field

Since the inception of the BCS at the conclusion of the 1998 football season, we've witnessed the emergence of a new system which relied on a combination of polls and computer selection methods to determine the final two championship teams. Just like most things, this newly developed system was met with much criticism, as some undefeated programs were omitted from consideration altogether. For years the debate waged on and the demand for a more adequate system became the battle cry for many disappointed college fans nation wide. Those grumbings were answered with the implementation of this se
