December 11th 2014: Leading Through Complexity

The work world is faster paced than ever before. Things that took months to transpire now only take minutes, and customers and employees make judgments in nanoseconds that can often not be changed without a lot of work. This environment is not likely to change but only get more intense. How should leaders respond to ensure continued success? This is no longer about being flexible and adaptable but about being agile. Toni Cusumano is a Principal and leader in PwC's Global Human Capital practice. She currently serves as the Technology Industry Human Capital & Strategic Change Leader. Toni ha
