February 26th 2015: Understanding Immigration

With at least 11 million undocumented people currently residing in the United States and more arriving every day, no one argues that immigration is a critical public policy concern. However, significant conflicts over how to fix the problem render potential solutions almost mute. Joining Between the Synapse to provide an understanding of this debate, including President Obama's November 2014 Executive Order and the very recent injunction issues to prevent its enactment is noted immigration attorney and former Houston City Council member Gordon Quan.
