Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and many other forms of social media have become a part of our lives. The ability to communicate with almost anyone anywhere has revolutionized communication. Parents can share important moments that take place in their children's lives instantly with friends and grandparents that may live a thousand miles away. That being said lives and reputations can be destroyed in an instant as well. Scott Fitch, former Division III player of the year and current high school basketball coach, joins Mickey to discuss the impact of social media on kids and society today. One
