Last time I checked, I am a male. Yeah I'm pretty sure of that. I find plenty of time to complain about something each day. Although I get frustrated with myself when I am complaining about such minor things that usually I cannot control, I am grateful for what I do have not only as a human, but also as a man. In this episode of Barely Controlled Radio, I will confront you women out there and will tell you why I enjoy being a man, why it sucks to be a man, why you women are lucky to be females, and of course the obvious reasons why you are a "little bit" unlucky to be females (not too many
