This show has two parts: first a discussion of cutting-edge research on divorce from the vantage point of those who have been through the process and are reflecting back about their thoughts and feelings; and second a discussion of prenuptial and postnuptial agreements. In part 1, we discuss the fascinating array of letters to ex-spouses that Vicki Shemin has collected, each beginning with "...And I just wanted you to know." Attorney Shemin plans to write a book about the research that includes these letters and an important accompanying survey. To participate in the research, go to www.surveymo
