July 7th 2015: Embracing Our Human Shadow

No its not sin, shame, and wickedness that we are here to somehow overcome. We are here to overcome the lies that we've been told about all that, through none other than the dogma and theology of the church itself. The church chose to teach all that because it was seen as a powerful way to control the masses. They have. Until now at least. Yeshua (Jesus) never, ever said the words "sin" or "hell" because those words do not exist in the Aramaic language, his native tongue. He never condemned anyone for being less than they could become. He repeatedly told people that they are the "light of the
