June 23rd 2015: Hot Topics with New York Agents

Everyone goes into their apartment search with requirements—No more than two blocks from a particular train - Outdoor space - A dishwasher—but as the search wears on, most of us pare down our list of demands to "livable" and "in my price range." But knowing where to compromise and where to stand your ground can be trickier than you'd think, especially if you're trying to reach consensus with another person, significant other or otherwise.
