October 1st 2015: The New World of Work with Morag Barrett

The workplace is rapidly changing in ways we never anticipated. Technology is galloping. People can sit in one part of the world and view an office at work in another through robots. The workforce is more educated than ever and increasingly global. As a result, how and where work gets done needs to be re-thought. We are trapped in old concepts born out of the industrial era that were created for entirely different conditions. Are these concepts trapping our thinking and our approaches to the new world of work? Join me with my guest Morag Barrett, renowned author, speaker and expert in cult
