February 18th 2016: The Potluck Revolution: Radical, Yet as American as Apple Pie

The Potluck Revolution is a call for us to go back to our American roots of cooperation and mutual support. For decades we have been told that competition is the normal way to live. Not so. We also have a history and desire for cooperation. We've had barn raising, where folks got together to help one another, and potlucks, where everyone contributes what they have, and we all get fed. These models are cooperative and as American as apple pie. Bernie Sanders says that we need a political revolution, where millions of people take back our power from special interests, and we agree. But we also n
