April 21st 2016: Transformative Parenting

In this episode Dr. Edward Haas, psychiatrist and author, draws upon his joy of parenting and his expertise in many areas to share his development of Transformative Parenting, which is a book as well as a philosophy used by professionals, parents, and school settings. Dr. Haas will describe the way in which this program captures the potential for mutual growth and connection for both parent and child. Consistent with research and evolving science on the importance of the early bonds and experiences in a child's first years, he offers rationale, practices and examples that build parent-child att

Featured Guest

Dr. Edward Haas

A psychiatrist, Dr. Haas' philosophy of parenting integrates his broad background - "I've worked as a dishwasher, stockbroker, financial analyst, computer consultant, drug abuse/HIV outreach worker, early intervention service coordinator. I've given Kung Fu demonstrations in China, celebrated mass with Pope John-Paul, meditated in Sufi dargah, Jain and Hindu temples in India, and Buddhist shrines in Nepal.
