September 14th 2016: Live from Frostburg State University!

This week I'm traveling to FSU for a presentation to the students. I will be interviewing staff and students to get their take on alcohol and other drug use and misuse on their campus and campuses around the country. Don Swogger, the Director of the SAFE program at FSU is a 25 year veteran in the field of higher education alcohol and other drug prevention. We will talk about the progress the field has made over the past 25 years.
