September 21st 2016: Your True Self

We are all born without previous experiences. As we grow up, we are influenced through our environment, which includes our parents, education, media, and culture. These influences make a lasting impression on us, so we end up living life as individuals, instead of in unison with all that is around us. This way of functioning, but not living a life of abundance, is one of struggling as an individual entity. Take, for example, an orchestra of 50 people. They sound great because they are all functioning together as a unit. If they saw themselves as separate individuals, the great would neve
